Data Protection Act

By accepting your policy, you consent to the insurers shown in this schedule using the information they may hold about you or others related to your policy for the purposes of providing insurance and handling claims, if any, and to process sensitive personal information about you or others related to your policy where this is necessary (for example health information or criminal convictions). This may mean the insurers shown in this schedule have to give some details to third parties involved in providing insurance cover. These may include insurance carriers, third-party claims adjusters, fraud detection and prevention services, third party service providers, reinsurance companies, insurer tracing offices and insurance regulatory authorities. Where such sensitive personal information relates to anyone other than you, you must obtain the explicit consent of the person to whom the information relates both to the disclosure of such information to the insurer and its use by the insurer as set out above. The information provided will be treated in confidence and in compliance with all relevant regulation and legislation. You or others related to your policy may have the right to apply for a copy of this information (for which the insurers shown in this schedule may charge a small fee) and to have any inaccuracies corrected.

For training and quality control purposes, telephone calls may be monitored or recorded.
